Bio Effect EGF Serum, €149

Made in Iceland, this could be an all-time hero product of the future. EGF is a cellular activator natural to human skin to help stimulate the renewal of skin cells.

Best INTENSIVE TREATMENT

Lancôme Visionnaire, €70

Designed to work on wrinkles, pores and evenness, this light gel has revolutionised skincare since its launch last year.

Best FOR DARK SPOTS

Kiehl's Clearly Corrective, €69.15

Whether they're caused by age or UV, you can reduce the appearance of dark spots with this highly-efficacious dark spot correcting serum. Use morning and night under moisturiser.

Best NIGHT TREATMENT

Estée Lauder Advanced Night Repair, €72

Nighttime is the optimum time to repair and replenish the skin. Use this daily to help neutralise environmental irritants before they get a chance to damage the skin.

Best LIGHT SERUM

Clarins Vital Light Serum, €69.15

For women who find a normal serum under moisturiser a little too much, this light option could be just the thing. It contains all of the goodness without the heaviness.

Best SERUM

Yves Saint Laurent Forever Youth Liberator, €110

Serums are now huge in the world of skincare. Out of all the serums tested, our panel rated this one particularly highly. 'Potent yet gentle', is how they described it.

Best ELIXIR

Olay Regenerist Night, €35.99

Super-performing serums can come with an equally super pricetag. This accessibly-priced serum hydrates and plumps while helping reduce the appearance of lines and wrinkles.

Best ANTI-AGEING

Philosophy Miracle Worker, €77.50

Retinoids are crucial in the battle against the visible signs of ageing. Used continuously for seven nights, this reduces the appearance of lines and wrinkles and re-texturises the surface of the skin.
